

Exhibit B

Statement from Team Systems International LLC:

TSI does not agree with Robinson Cole's Motion to Withdraw and the grounds raised therein. TSI does not agree that issues of cooperation or timely communications exist that support Robinson Cole's Motion and Withdraw. TSI is a small, four person, Native American business that has timely responded to counsel's requests while it continues to operate its daily business. While TSI is an active participant, along with its counsel, in developing a response to GPDEV and Simons Exploration baseless accusations, TSI does not agree that a difference of opinions exists that would warrant counsel's withdrawal. While the aggressiveness of GPDEV's and Simons Exploration's counsel appears to have caught Robinson Cole off-guard, counsel's attempt to withdraw at this time would severely prejudice TSI. TSI has a 22FEB2022 deadline to file its Response to the Motion for Sanctions. Allowing counsel to withdraw at this juncture would irredeemably prejudice TSI. TSI is actively looking for new counsel, but until new representation is secured, Robinson Cole should not be allowed to withdraw.
